Pandit Hemchandra Goswami

(1872-1928) was a defining Assamese intellectual—poet, historian, teacher, and linguist—whose lifelong dedication to the Assamese language remains a priceless heritage. He facilitated the publication of the first Assamese dictionary, “Hemkosh” by Hemchandra Barua, wrote the first Assamese sonnet "Priyatamar Sithi", served as a key resource for Sir Edward Gait’s History of Assam, and compiled Axomiya Sahityar Saneki, documenting 1500 years of Assamese language and culture.

Driven to establish the antiquity of Assamese through comparative scholarly analysis, he systematically catalogued, arranged, and edited 233 of 525 Assamese historical chronicles culminating in his monumental work, "A Descriptive Catalogue of Assamese Manuscripts." He was the fourth president of the Asom Sahitya Sabha.

Pandit Hemchandra Goswami Foundation

Established in 2022, the Pandit Hemchandra Goswami Foundation works tirelessly towards its core vision of promoting both Science and Assamese Culture. Partnering with the Centre for Knowledge Systems at the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Guwahati, the Foundation organizes educational outreach initiatives for school and college students from the remote corners of Assam, operating under expert guidance.

We cordially invite you to join us in celebrating Pandit Hemchandra Goswami and his work, featuring an esteemed gathering of scholars and performing artists.
